Query	Clarifications
May we ask if the documents submitted on the review of Eligibility resulted to "FAIL" on the date of submission, will this mean that we cannot buy or secure the bidding documents for the said project and participate in the selection and bidding processes of your Bids and Awards Committee (BAC) team? Meaning on the day of documents submission, if we are Eligible to participate and find our documents "PASS" then that will be the opportunity to buy and secure bidding documents and participate in your bidding process.	If the prospective bidder is rated “passed” as reviewed for all the eligibility requirements, then the bidder will be “eligible” to participate in the next phase of the bidding process which is the shortlisting to determine the shortlisted bidders while, if the prospective bidder is rated “failed”, then it will, be “ineligible” to participate in the next phase of the said bidding process. The BAC will rank and draw up the shortlisted bidders from those who have been marked and determined as “eligible”. Only the bids from the shortlisted bidders will be accepted and can participate in Stage 2 of bidding for this project. Please refer to Section 8.4 and 21.1 of Section II.
