

RESEARCH DESIGN AND METHODOLOGY

1) Research context

- The Consultant should provide a description of the Research Context for the BCDA 2022 Stakeholder Satisfaction Study.
- The Research Questions should be indicated as part of the Research Context.
- Research design should show relevance to baseline studies and to the GCG requirements.

2) Researcher's Roles

The Consultant shall define the researcher's role in the study.

3) Methodology,

The Consultant shall discuss the methodology to be used for the study, which is composed of two phases. The methodology shall incorporate GCG requirements.

4) Sampling Strategy

The Consultant shall justify the sampling strategy relative to research objectives and requirements of the study as described in the TOR.

5) Data collection

The Consultant shall describe data collecting procedures to be used based on requirements of the study as described in the TOR.

6) Data Processing & Analysis

The Consultant shall explain data analysis and processing procedures to be used based on requirements of the study as described in the TOR.

7) Timeline

The Consultant shall describe the timetable of deliverables/milestones incorporating too directives of the GCG.